

GOD'S IMAGE IN THE NATIONS

+ SESSION IN A SENTENCE:

All people possess value, having been made in the image of God.

+ BACKGROUND PASSAGES:

Genesis 5; Psalm 139; Luke 10:25-37; 2 Corinthians 3

+ SETTING:

One key to fully comprehending the wrath and judgment of God is to grasp the nature of humanity. The Bible begins with the story of creation. Filled with many astounding details of how God formed this world and all He filled it with, it is easy to miss one colossal truth embedded within the creation narrative. When God made humankind, He did something different. Every other action was performed without one critical factor found only in the creative act of Adam and Eve, namely, God fashioned humans in His image. Both male and female were constructed to reflect who God is, providing humankind with a unique and special status within all of God's work.

VOICES from THE CHURCH

"People were created in the image of God, to reflect the glory of God. 'The heavens declare the glory of God' and so also 'the earth is full of his glory' (Psalm 19:1; Isaiah 6:3), but in the beginning it was the man and the woman, the ones created in God's image, who most clearly and brightly and purely shone with the glory of God. As they stood upon the earth, bearing God's image, they bore a true witness to the existence and the excellence of God. What a great tragedy it was when the man and woman lost the clearness and brightness and pureness of that image by their sin."<sup>1</sup>

Back in 2005, a new online e-commerce site emerged. Created by a group of amateur artisans, Etsy® provided a dedicated marketplace for handmade, hand-crafted, and vintage items. Before Etsy arrived, quality crafted items had to compete within the online spaces that included brand-new items produced in bulk. Alongside one another, the price disparity can be shocking, not to mention that merchants flood the markets with cheap imitations and quickly built knock-offs that won't stand the test of time.

Etsy took off quickly. Not only did it provide a space for artisans to more easily highlight and sell their work, it also gave consumers a honed-in arena to find the unique and quality pieces they may be looking for. When the consumer heads to Amazon®, he is looking for a steal-of-a-deal. When a shopper buys from Etsy, she is making an investment in a distinctive product to enjoy for years to come.

Psalm 139 is a captivating account of the meticulous efforts God took to create David. Indeed, this is a testimony to God's careful creation of each of us. There is no flippancy or cutting of corners involved. The bottom line is not about dollars and cents but about establishing worth and wonder. The Lord exhibits great care and intentionality to create every person as a unique and valuable masterpiece: "for we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works" (Eph. 2:10).

God is the master craftsman, the divine Creator, and He chose to create us, beautifully and intricately. He is worthy of our praise for how He created us.

ESSENTIAL DOCTRINE #28:
IMAGE OF GOD IN HUMANITY

The image of God in humanity is understood as mirroring God's attributes in our nature, actions, and relational capacities. In Jesus, we see the true image of God. He perfectly mirrors God's attributes, fulfills God's will, and enjoys a perfect relationship with the Father. The Bible continues to speak of the image of God in humanity even after our fall into sin, even though our ability to rightly reflect God has been marred.

We're all on a journey to figure out who we are. This is seen acutely in the teenage years. Self-expression becomes an important part of life as teenagers experiment with hair color, clothing, music, even style of speech. It's like putting on a costume to see if it fits. Some kids end their freshman year with the cowboy look, only to return as a goth sophomore. It is innate within us to figure out who we are. And with the culture screaming at us, "You do you!" the pressure is real.

It is critical for each of us to figure out who we are. It can be okay to establish different "flavors" of personality and to express those variations through what we wear, how we spend our time, and how we set up our environments. However, we must recognize that ultimately God has already given us our identity. From the foundation of the world, we were all given the status of an image-bearer of God. Our existence is already wrapped up in who He is.

Therefore, when we don't know who God is, or we have His character mixed up, we become mixed up ourselves. If we see God as distant and weak, we will compensate by making much of our strengths and abilities. When our mind's eye views God as subject to the whims of the world instead of being the One who holds the universe together, it will lead us to think we can create our own rules.

Until we see ourselves for who we truly are—created, treasured, purpose-filled individuals who bear the very mark of God—we will wander and waste much energy trying to solve a puzzle we already have the answer to.

What will you do today to establish reminders in your life of who you already are as an image-bearer and child of God?

NOTES

The definition of “neighborly” is dependent on the culture where you grew up. Be it in the southeastern United States, being kind to your neighbor might include sweet tea and casseroles delivered to your doorstep. In the western US, it probably involves minding your own business and keeping your mind open. In other countries, there is great honor in going to great lengths to show hospitality to those you encounter. Trying to pin down a definition for being “neighborly” is difficult.

Then there is the question the expert in the law asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” (Luke 10:29). Is a “neighbor” restricted to living within a certain number of blocks? Does it include people outside my normal sphere of life? Are there further restrictions within that circle of proximity?

Through this parable, Jesus gives us a glimpse into the biblical perspective of who a neighbor is and what a neighbor does. He does not define a neighbor by ethnicity or proximity. The good neighbor highlighted in this story was a perfect stranger from a hated culture. To be a good neighbor has more to do with what you do than where you are (or are not) from.

So, then, what does a neighbor do? According to Jesus, a neighbor of merit is one who shows mercy. Compassion drove the neighbor in the parable to care for the hurting person. The Samaritan went to great lengths to rescue and bring restoration to the beaten traveler. If we want to follow in the footsteps of the figure Jesus provided, we too must have compassion for all we encounter.

Regardless of their address or background, we get to deliver the mercy of God to the proverbial doorstep of our neighbors’ hearts.

How would you define being neighborly to people you encounter throughout your life? How will you show the mercy of God to one image-bearer today?

NOTES

Perhaps all this talk of image-bearing can seem a bit ethereal and unreachable. Thankfully, we have the example of Christ to guide our efforts toward becoming better image-bearers.

Hebrews 1:3 tells us that Jesus is the radiance of God's glory and the exact expression of His nature. The Messiah came to earth—fully God and fully man—and lived a perfect human life. His perfect life was vital as it qualified Him to become the unblemished sacrifice for our sins. Only a perfect sacrifice was acceptable, which is why we needed the Lamb of God to die in our place. Not one of us could pay the penalty of our sins through our very blemished efforts.

But the perfect life of Christ has also provided an example for us to follow. So, as we follow in the footsteps of Jesus, we are walking out our identity as an image-bearer of God. Jesus, the exact expression of God's image, got it right every time. Everything He did and said pointed to the holy character of the Father. This too is our job as Christ-followers.

The role of an image-bearer is to reflect the character of the original image. We set our minds on things above, choose to put to death the deeds of the flesh, and intentionally put on the new self we've been given in Christ. This is the work of the image-bearer. We do everything in the name of the Lord as an act of worship for all He has done for us, all He is currently doing, and all He will continue to do.

As you look at the list of actions in Colossians 3, what do you need to adjust today so that you can walk in the footsteps of Jesus and become a better image-bearer?

NOTES

As believers in Christ, we live a “therefore” life. The Bible is filled with incredible truths of who God is and all He has done. This is primarily what the Scripture is all about. Every reader, then, gets to choose how to respond to these truths about God. Christians wholeheartedly embrace these truths, and with this embrace, we are given a new purpose—all of life becomes worship to the one true and living God.

Worship at its essence is simply a response to something or someone. Choosing to worship God is a determination to live a life that responds to who He is and what He’s done. Being a recipient of mercy brings with it a responsibility to respond to that mercy. The Bible provides the answer for what this looks like, namely, obedience. The commands we tend to turn into checklists of achievement are actually invitations to worship God for who He is and what He’s done.

- Christ has saved me from my sin; therefore . . .
- I have been given glorious gifts of grace; therefore . . .
- The Spirit has brought me freedom; therefore . . .
- I am made in the image of the glorious God of the universe; therefore . . .
- My eternal destiny is secure; therefore . . .
- I am being transformed into Christ’s perfect likeness; therefore . . .

As redeemed Christians, we are given incredible purpose for our lives. If the end goal of our salvation is simply our salvation, there would be no need for us to remain on this earth. Yet here we are. We are still here because we have work to do for the sake of God’s glory among the lost.

We live a “therefore” life—a life that honors God—in order that those who are perishing would see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ within us.
